College of Medicine
A continuing education service of Penn State College of Medicine

The background of the flyer is a large, detailed illustration of a maple leaf in shades of green and yellow. The text is primarily in a dark green color, with the date and event name in white on a dark green rectangular background.

Purpose

The mission of this program is to raise awareness of and disseminate knowledge about developments in neurological diseases.

Audience

Physicians and health-care providers involved in the management of neurological diseases can benefit from attending this program.

Objectives

At the conclusion of the program, participants should be able to:

1. Describe the latest understanding of the evaluation of headache, epilepsy, movement disorders, cognitive enhancement, peripheral nerve disorders, multiple sclerosis, and stroke
2. Explain presumed pathophysiology of select headache, epilepsy, movement disorders, cognitive enhancement, peripheral nerve disorders, multiple sclerosis, and stroke
3. List current, cutting-edge management of headache, epilepsy, movement disorders, cognitive enhancement, peripheral nerve disorders, multiple sclerosis, and stroke

Credit

Penn State has approved each program for 0.5 Continuing Education Units (CEUs).

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint sponsorship of Penn State College of Medicine and Pennsylvania Neurological Society. Penn State College of Medicine is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Penn State College of Medicine designates this educational activity for a maximum of 5.0 *AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)*TM. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

It is our policy to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all of our sponsored educational programs. Faculty and course directors have disclosed relevant financial relationships with commercial companies, and Penn State has a process in place to resolve any conflict of interest. Complete faculty disclosure will be provided to program participants at the beginning of the activity.

Accommodations

Overnight accommodations are the responsibility of program participants. To reserve a room at the Hilton Harrisburg, call 717-233-6000 or 1-800-HILTONS. Rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis. A list of accommodations in the Hershey area is available on request or online at www.hmc.psu.edu/visitors/dininglodging.htm. We recommend that you make reservations as early as possible.

Location

The Hilton Harrisburg hotel is in the heart of historic downtown Harrisburg, just three blocks from the Pennsylvania State Capitol building. Nearby Harrisburg International Airport is easily accessed from the hotel by courtesy van. The area has many attractions, including historic Gettysburg battlefield, HersheyPark, Hershey Arena, and a wide variety of Pennsylvania Dutch cultural sites. There is a unique retail complex with more than 50 specialty shops and restaurants adjacent to the Hilton Harrisburg hotel.

For information on what's happening in the area, go to www.hersheyharrisburg.org.

Access

Penn State encourages persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. If you anticipate needing any type of special accommodation or have questions about the physical access provided, please contact Continuing Education at least one week in advance of your participation or visit.
