

Judicial Affairs

Office of Judicial Affairs

Mission

The mission of Judicial Affairs is to support the University's educational mission and goals by promoting a just, safe, orderly, and positive University climate through behavioral standards, disciplinary processes, training, informational programming and intervention efforts.

College of Medicine Role

The College of Medicine, as part of the University, is governed by the University's disciplinary code and follows the disciplinary process established by University Park.

Judicial Affairs is responsible for interpreting and enforcing the Student Code of Conduct (<http://www.sa.psu.edu/ja/conduct.shtml>). Additional policies and procedures for students can be found on the Judicial Affairs web site (<http://www.sa.psu.edu/ja/procedures.shtml>).

Penn State College of Medicine Designees

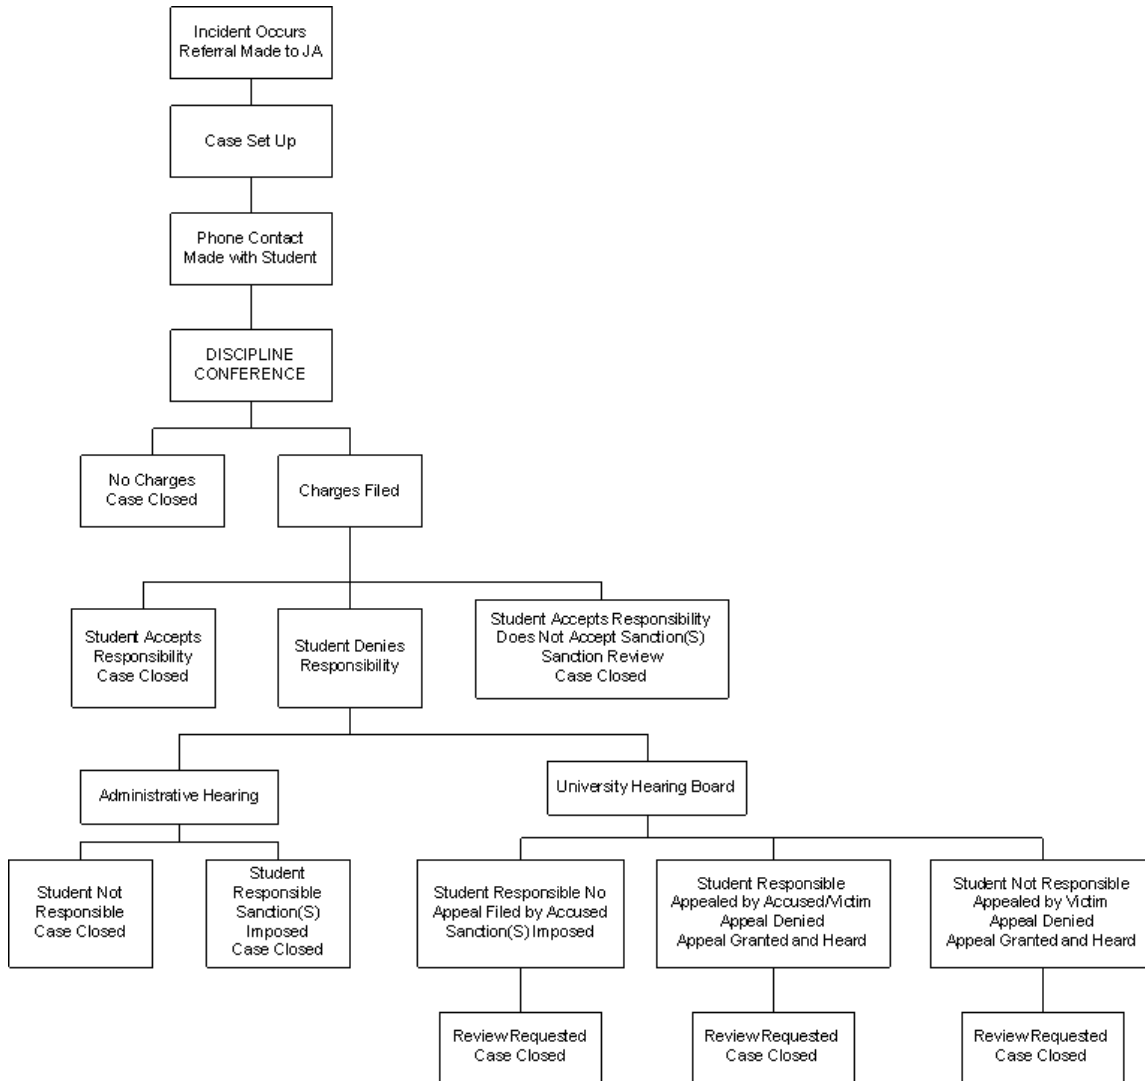

Administrative Hearing Officer

Richard J. Simons, M.D.
Vice-Dean for Educational Affairs

Administrative Designee

Jody R. McCullough
Coordinator, Medical Education

Discipline System Flow Chart

Revised: 7/21/2005